Day 1

CAPE TOWN

Upon disembarking the cruise ship in Cape Town, a local tour guide will meet you and take you to Table Mountain and city orientation tour.

No visit to Cape Town is complete without a trip up Table Mountain, the city's most celebrated landmark. Depart from the quayside and travel up Kloof Nek, the saddle between Table Mountain and Lions Head, to the Lower Cableway Station. Ascend from the Valley Station (363 m) to the Mountain Station (1 060 m) in a Swiss engineered Rotair cable car. The journey from the base to the summit takes just under 4 minutes and one can enjoy spectacular views, as the floor of the car rotates 360 degrees during the ascent and descent.

Table Mountain gets her name from the flat topped central massif of the mountain, which viewed from the city, is surrounded by Devil's Peak on the left, Lion's Head on the right and Signal Hill in the foreground. They form a sort of amphitheatre that encloses the city centre and some of the older suburbs. Other earlier suburbs are on either side of the chain of mountains, which run like a spine through the Cape Peninsula, from Table Mountain to Cape Point – the cape from which Cape Town gets its name.

Afterwards, stroll through the Company's Garden, the oldest garden in South Africa. Established in 1652 by Jan van Riebeeck, it was originally used as a vegetable garden to supply fresh produce to passing ships. Located within the gardens are the red-bricked House of Parliament, the South African National Gallery, the Jewish Museum and the Great Synagogue.

Thereafter, enjoy a city orientation drive driving past Adderley Street – it's the principal thoroughfare of Cape Town, and is renowned for its fine examples of old Cape architecture, including the Standard Bank Building, St George's Anglican Cathedral and the Cultural History Museum.

Visit to the Castle of Good Hope - the oldest building in South Africa. Take a tour of the Castle, including a visit to the Military Museum and the William Fehr collection. This cultural history museum contains a collection of old Cape Dutch porcelain, historic paintings and many antique pieces of furniture.

Continue to your lunch venue with drive past the colorful and historic houses of the Bo-kaap (Malay Quarter).

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant in Cape Town. Thereafter continue to Cape Grace Hotel where you will spend 2 nights enjoying the luxury, comfort of this international award winning hotel.

The Cape Grace is located at Cape Town's vibrant and bustling Victoria & Alfred Waterfront. Built on one of the old quays, this red-brick building with its simple and demur exterior has become something of a local landmark. The hotel's décor is an innovative blend of historic and contemporary, mixing custom-made metal, glass and leather pieces with hand-painted fabrics and museum-quality antiques to create a look that is entirely its own.

Being at the heart of the V&A Waterfront and close to the city centre, The Cape Grace is in a prime position for those wanting to explore Cape Town.

Enjoy a scrumptious dinner at the hotel's Signal Restaurant.
